IN RE:

Hearing Date: February 7, 2019
Time: 9:30am

Christopher T George,

Ch. 13 Case No.: 18-12824

Debtors

MOTION FOR TURNOVER, VIOLATION OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND DAMAGES PURSUANT TO 11 USC §362

The above-captioned Debtor, by his attorney, William Waldner, Esq., hereby moves this Court, pursuant to 11 USC § 362, for an Order instructing NYS Child Support Processing Center (the “Creditor”) to return money garnished from Christopher George (the “Debtor”) since this case was filed, to stop further garnishments to award legal fees.

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice in the State of New York and in the Southern District of New York and I submit this affirmation under penalty of perjury. I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances surrounding this case.

JURISDICTION/CORE PROCEEDING

2. The Court has jurisdiction to consider the claims of the Debtor for turnover, violation of the automatic stay and damages related to contempt pursuant to 28 USC § 1334 and § 157. This is a core proceeding as defined in 28 USC § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), (C), (E) and (G).

BACKGROUND AND FACTS

1. The Debtor filed a Petition pursuant to Chapter 13 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on September 19, 2019(the “Chapter 13 case”).

2. The Creditor has been garnishing the Debtor's wages since the Chapter 13 case has started.
3. 11 USC section 352(a)(2) states that "a petition filed under section 301, 302, or 303 of this title...operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of...the enforcement, against the debtor or against property of the estate, of a judgment obtained before the commencement of the case under this title"
4. By garnishing the Debtor's wages the creditor has been in direct violation of 11 USC section 362.
5. Based upon the affirmation of William Waldner (Exhibit C) Debtor request turnover of the garnished wages, the termination of collection activities against the Debtor by the Creditor, the award of legal fees against the Creditor and any and all relief the court will grant.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Owner respectfully requests the entry of an Order: (1) demanding that the Creditor turn over money that has been garnished from the Debtor since this case has been filed; (ii) awarding attorney's fees and damages against the Creditor and (iii) granting such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Case No.: 18-12824

Debtors.

AFFIRMATION OF WILLIAM WALDNER IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR VIOLATION OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS

I, William Waldner declare and state as follows:

1. On September 19, 2019 the Debtor filed for Chapter 13 Bankruptcy. The Child Support Unit was listed in the Debtor's Bankruptcy petition.
2. The Debtor owed approximately $12,000 in arrears for his domestic support obligation.
3. On or about October 5, 2018 I received a letter in the mail from the NYS Child Support processing center asking for the Debtor's child Support case number. On October 9th, 2018 I sent a letter back to The NYS Child Support Processing Center with the Debtor's NYS Child Support Case Number. (EXHIBIT A)
4. Prior to that date my office has not sent correspondence to the NYC Child Support Processing Center regarding the Debtor's case. I presume they received the court generated notice regarding the Debtor's meeting of creditors.
5. The Debtor has been continually garnished by the NYS Child Support Processing Center and those garnishments have not stopped. (EXHIBIT B)
6. On November, 20, 2018 the Debtor and myself conferenced called the NYS Child Support processing center at around 12:16pm. First we spoke with one female who asserted that there was not a fax number for the NYS Child Support Processing Center.

Next we spoke with a supervisor named Janet who told us that she would forward the Bankruptcy case information to the appropriate office.

7. It has been a month since the call to the NYS Child Support Processing Center and the Debtor is still being garnished.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statement is true and correct.
